Participate in your company's matching gifts program Help Wasatch Charter School

Numerous American companies offer current employees and in some cases retired employees the opportunity to match charitable gifts to their favorite nonprofit organizations. The companies listed below offer such programs. If your place of work is listed here, contact its Human Resources Department to obtain a matching gifts form, complete your portion and send it along with your charitable contribution to Wasatch Charter School. We'll take care of the rest. And thank you for your generosity.
